

REPORT: HSCC Brands Hatch Super Prix

The Historic Sports Car Club's Legends of Brands Hatch Superprix delivered an outstanding three days of historic race action on both the Indy and Grand Prix circuits at the famous Kent venue (9-11 July).

Andy Newall made it three from three in the Guards Trophy at the head of a bumper grid of cars, although the Lenham P70 of Simon and Cam Jackson ran the Chevron close for much of the race. Only after the pit stops did Newall edge clear to take his lead out to slightly more than 10 seconds. Another father and son crew completed the podium as Westie and Ben Mitchell brought their Chevron B8 into third.

The GT battle raged all the way to the flag, as John Spiers and Peter Thompson duelled in their TVR Griffiths. Spiers just about held the upper hand throughout the race, but Thompson kept him keen and closed in again over the final lap to finish only a third of a second behind.
