

REPORT: HSCC Brands Hatch Super Prix

The Historic Sports Car Club's Legends of Brands Hatch Superprix delivered an outstanding three days of historic race action on both the Indy and Grand Prix circuits at the famous Kent venue (9-11 July).

Formula Fords played a major part in the weekend and, ultimately, there were three wins for Cam Jackson but it was never easy. Unfortunately, the opening Historic race on Saturday was ultimately abandoned after two red flags, the second following an incident at Druids which left Ross Drybrough with a hand injury.

In the second Historic race, Jackson had a major challenge from Tom McArthur and the lead change several times before Jackson got back ahead when it mattered. However, McArthur was less than a fifth of a second behind in a race to the line at the end of a splendid battle. Horatio Fitz-Simon went with them once he had wriggled clear of an early battle for third with Samuel Harrison.
