SILVERSTONE GP NEXT FOR HSCC >>>

One of the flagship events of the Historic Sports Car Club's racing calendar for 2022 will be this weekend's Silverstone International Trophy meeting on the glorious Silverstone Grand Prix circuit.

The annual foray on to the full Grand Prix circuit at the Club's home circuit is always a highlight of the calendar for many HSCC racers and strong grids are due across all of the categories.

PAUL LAWRENCE

Historic Formula Ford 1600 also has an excellent grid, close to 30 cars...

Making its seasonal debut will be the HSCC Thundersports category for a glorious array of sports racing and GT cars of the 1970s. The grid is full of fabulous machines with no less than four Lola T70s, including one for hugely experienced historic racer Gary Pearson and one for the hard-charging Dean Forward. Veteran racer John Burton, who starred in these cars in period, is back for another season in his Chevron B26, while other leading runners include Simon Watts in his B26.

Another fine Historic Formula Ford 2000 grid will be topped by the so far this year unbeaten Benn Simms in his Reynard SF77 with four wins to date under his belt. Benn is already taking a firm grip on the early title race but knows that drivers like fellow category champions Graham Fennimore and Andrew Park will be pushing hard to stop him adding any more victories at Silverstone.

Historic Formula Ford 1600 also has an excellent grid, close to 30 cars, for the Grand Prix circuit races including returning champion Cam Jackson in his Winkelmann, Snetterton double winner Tom McArthur and rising young star Samuel Harrison in the lead Merlyn from the Silverstone-based Speedsport team. Ben Mitchell makes a welcome return to the category in another Merlyn and two slipstreaming thrillers are very likely.

New on the HSCC roster this season is the Griffiths Haig Trophy series of races for 1950s brake drum sports cars, and an excellent grid has been gathered for this inaugural race. The series honours two of the founders of the HSCC back in 1966, Guy Griffiths and Betty Haig, and it is set to grow in strength over the coming seasons. A truly eclectic array of cars will take to the Grand Prix circuit, including the thundering Farallac Allard of series prime mover Tony Bianchi and wonderful machines like the Ferrari 500 of David Cottingham and the rare Kellison of Robin Tuluie.

Another category making its first appearance of the season is the Aurora Trophy for a glorious array of powerful single seaters, which shares a grid with the Geoff Lees Trophy for the later cars. Formula 2, Formula 5000 and Formula Atlantic cars of the 1970s pack out the Aurora grid, including the Formula 2 cars of Andrew Smith and Brian Morris (March 782s) and Rob Wainwright (March 762).

Making its first appearance of the season is the Aurora Trophy, with Formula 5000, Formula 2, and Formula Atlantic cars of the 1970s

Heading the Formula 5000s will be Keith Norris and Matthew Wurr in McLaren M10Bs while Rory Smith in his Ralt RT4 flies the Geoff Lees Trophy flag and will endeavour to make up in cornering speed what his Formula Atlantic car lacks in out and out power.

Making an excellent start to 2022 will be the Guards

Trophy race for a fine array of sports racing and GT cars of the 1960s with no less than seven Chevron B8s, led by Julian Thomas and Westie Mitchell, packing out the front of the grid.

Ranged against the Chevron pack will be the Lenham sports-racing car of father and son Simon and Cam Jackson.

Meanwhile a strong GT class for the 40-minute race includes a gaggle of seven Lotus Elans with notable drivers John Davison and Nick Pancisi.

Classic Formula Ford 1600 has a double-header sharing a grid with the Historic Formula 3 cars and from the Formula Ford pack it is current champion and double Snetterton winner Jordan Harrison who should set the pace in his Lola T544E. But drivers like Richard Tarling will be pressing hard while in the Formula 3 field likely pacesetters are John Milicevic, Ian Bankhurst and Simon Armer.

Historic Road Sports is boosted by the guesting cars from Historic Touring Cars and Ecurie Classic Racing to make a 40-car grid Both HSCC Road Sports championships have a race over the weekend with strong grids and a bumper field of 30 Historic Road Sports is further boosted by the guesting cars from Historic Touring Cars and Ecurie Classic Racing to make a 40-car grid.

HRS pacesetters will be Richard Plant (Morgan +8), Kevin Kivlochan (AC Cobra) and John Davison (Lotus Elan).

The 70s Road sports field will have their third race of the season and it is the Lotus Elan of former champion Jeremy Clark that will take on the more powerful Morgan +8 of Will Plant and the Datsun 240Z of Charles Barter on the open spaces of Silverstone.

A welcome guest race from Masters Historic Racing will put more than 30 cars onto the grid for Saturday's hour-long Gentleman Drivers race for pre 66 GT cars, which promises to be a fabulous spectacle as AC Cobras and Jaguar E-types take on the nimble Lotus Elans.

THE SATURDAY PARADE

During the lunch break on Saturday, a rather special parade of Bristol cars will be organised in celebration of the launch of a new book called 'Aero-dynamic', the story of Bristol sports racing cars in the 1950s.

The celebration is being organised by BRDC member Warwick Banks and Michael Barton and will include a display of cars from the Bristol marque in the area behind Race Control in the national paddock. A number of those cars will then take to the track during the lunch break for a celebratory parade.

The new book by Simon Charlesworth is being published by the Butterfield Press and is part of the celebration of cars from the Bristol marque racing at Le Mans and Reims in the early 1950s.

One of the cars that is hoped will be in attendance is a rare Bristol 450 in its 1954 specification.
