COMMENT

ROADSPORTS HAVE FESTIVAL (CLASSIC) HISTORY WITH THE ASSOCIATION STRETCHING BACK SIXTEEN YEARS. AMAZINGLY JULIAN BARTER IS THE ONLY COMPETITOR FROM THE TOP TEN IN 2007 ON THIS YEARS GRID. ALTHOUGH WE THINK MUST HAVE BEEN IN SHORT TROUSERS BACK THEN!

This Newsletter has been created to provide competitors taking part in the Roadsports Trophy with an easy access guide to where they should be and when over the weekend.

It is however just a guide and not intended to replace the Competitors' Guide, Final Instructions and Official Timetable so don't forget to keep an eye on the Event Notice Board for up to date information.

www.hsc.org.uk/event-notice-board/

As the living embodiment of the iconic Observer 's Book of Automobiles by John Blunsden, the Roadsports Trophy race is always a big favourite with the car clubs and spectators. Awarded 'Best of Show' at the 2008 Classic we have the opportunity to steal the show again this year. Based in the exclusive Roadsports Village, this provide us with an unrivaled opportunity to contribute to the spirit and pageantry of the event in our own unique way.

Festival visitors love to get up close and intimate with their cameras and phones before post images of their favourite cars on social media. Keep those dusters and polishing cloths handy, as we'll be collecting nominations for a 'Peoples Choice' competition and awarding a trophy at 1.00 Sunday afternoon.

Although not compulsory we would like to encourage competitors to dress in a 60s or 70s period style on Saturday to create a step-back-in-time atmosphere around the Roadsports Village. Please have a rummage in your Goodwood Revival dressing-up box, see what you can find to make the weekend fun both on and off track.

To reassure all competitors Silverstone Circuits have confirmed that the Roadsports Village will have security cover at night. We also believe that there will be a power supply to the marquees

If you enjoy your race with Roadsports at the Festival there is still time to join us at the Croft Historic Race Weekend on 2nd & 3rd Sept. This is a great event with a unique atmosphere, the organisers and spectators are enthusiastic the circuit challenging and great fun.

Contact the HSCC: 01327 858400 and place an entry – hope to see you again that weekend in Dalton-on-Tees.
